Was time given to public input? If so, how many people spoke?			No members of the public spoke during the designated time on the agenda. The audience included two additional online attendees and four others in attendance. One audience member, the City of Ellensburg Housing Manager, was asked by the Board to give input on an issue under discussion.

Action:

The meeting was devoted to work with a consultant, Robin Read, as the members worked in small groups to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of the committee functioning followed by the benefits and dangers of the strategies that guided their work this past year. Following that they discussed their interactions with other community agencies and strategies for networking and communicating with them. The meeting adjourned at 2:30 p.m.
